CONFISCATION has been suspended in Poland.

BUSINESS is extremely dull in the Western cities.

THE Republican State Convention will be held at Williamsport on Wednesday next, June 27th.

THERE were but nine deaths in Pittsburgh during the week ending June 16th, and seven the week previous.

FRANCE evidently anticipates no war in the near future. Her army is to be still further decreased, by order of the Emperor.

AT THE RACE which took place yesterday between "Dexter" and "Ethan Allen" at Jerome Park, New York, the latter won the three heats, making the best time on record.

THE death of Ex-Gov. Henry Dodge, of Wisconsin, and formerly United States Senator from that State, is announced. He had attained the ripe old age of eighty-five years.

THE Cincinnati Commercial has been advocating the nomination to Congress of Mr. Richard Smith, of the Gazette, of that city. The motion is numerously seconded, and it is not improbable that he will be nominated.

THE SUBLIME PORTE of Turkey refuses to suspend hostilities in Candia, but is willing that the Great Powers inquire into the alleged grievances of the Christians, the Porte to be represented in the commission of investigation.

THE SURRATT TRIAL drags slowly. Yesterday the only important point established by the prosecution was that prisoner and Booth were drinking together in a low saloon in Washington, on the day of Lincoln's assassination.

FLORUS B. PLIMPTON, Esq., now in France, is supplying the Cincinnati Commercial with a series of letters exceedingly clever and well written. Foreign correspondence tests the abilities of most journalists, and but few succeed in adding to their reputation as writers by sketches from abroad.

THE CABLE announces a singular attempt of two hundred armed men to take possession of Rome, and then and there to proclaim a Republican form of government. The attempt was too rash to be accomplished with anything like success. Forty of the revolutionists have been cast into prison.

MR. WADE's suggestion for a redistribution of property seems to have yielded no other result than damage to his character as a statesman. The same is true of Mr. CHANDLER's proposition to seize the Canadas in settlement of the Alabama claims. Both these gentlemen, doubtless, realize by this time that it is easy to say mischievous things, but difficult to escape the consequences of the indiscretion.

THE Philadelphia Ledger building was yesterday taken possession of by the proprietors of that prosperous journal. It is doubtless the finest and most complete structure devoted to newspaper purposes in the world. The occupation of the premises was celebrated by a grand dinner at the Continental Hotel, at which some eight hundred persons were in attendance. The feast cost the trifling sum of $15,000 to Mr. Childs and his partners.

LEADING CITIZENS of New Orleans have united in bearing testimony to the worth and integrity of Collector Kellog, against whom serious charges were preferred to the President. The main fault of the Collector appears to have been his sympathy with the Republican party. The document impugning his character for honesty, mentioned thirty citizens of New Orleans, who would attest the truth of the charges when called upon. Twenty-six of the gentlemen named have signed a paper endorsing Mr. Kellog and denouncing his accusers, while the remaining four are unknown.

THE AUSTRIAN EMPEROR includes Kossuth in his general amnesty proclamation to all political prisoners. The latter but recently protested against the regeneration of Hungary by the crowning of Francis Joseph as her Emperor, using the following language:

"If I may not carry to my grave the satisfaction of success, let me at least take with me thither a hope for the future of my country! Lead her not to such sacrifices as may rob me even of this last hope!

"I know that CASSANDRA's role is an unthankful one. Weigh thou, however, the remembrance that CASSANDRA was right!"

THE average daily attendance at the Public Schools of Cincinnati is 16,835 out of 92,544 youths of school age in the city. The salaries paid teachers are as follows:

Principals of the Intermediate Schools receive for their first year $1,800, which is increased $100 each year, until it reaches the maximum, $2,100; First Male Assistants, $1,200, increasing to $1,500; Female Assistants, $600, increasing to $800; Male Teachers in positions of Female, $700, increasing to $900.

In the District Schools, Principals get $1,600, increasing to $1,900; First Male Assistants, $1,000, increasing to $1,300; Female Assistants, $400, increasing to $700; or Male Teachers in their places, $500, increasing to $700.

Music Teachers receive each not exceeding $1,800 per annum; Drawing Teachers, $800, increasing to $900; Gymnastic Teachers, Male, $1,500; Female Assistants, $800.

The Superintendent has $2,500; Clerk of the Board, $2,500; Superintendent of Buildings, $2,500; Librarian, $1,200; First Assistant, $650; Second Assistant, $350.

—The North Carolina gold mines, which were worked before the war, it is announced, are again coming into notice. About eighteen or twenty stamp mills are up and being erected, four or five of which are now in full operation; and at one of the mines known as the Huey Mines they have a ten-stamp mill, which is now producing $300 in bullion per day. The North Carolina papers say that scientific miners from California, with large experience in gold mining, having examined the mines of the State, have pronounced them equal to the rich valleys and mountain gorges of that famous State.

FROM FRANKLIN.

[Special Correspondence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

FRANKLIN, June 19, 1867.

The Return Judges met in Convention here yesterday, to count the votes cast at the late Republican primary meetings, for the various candidates. Col. A. P. Duncan, formerly of the 4th Pennsylvania cavalry, was nominated for Assembly over all competitors, by a large majority. Col. Duncan fought bravely all through the late war, was a good soldier, and the Republicans will reward his heroism by electing him to the next Legislature, with an overwhelming majority. J. L. Connelly received the nomination for Associate Judge; T. J. Morrison for County Treasurer, and and Wilson Davis for County Commissioner. This is a strong ticket and will be successful.

The County Committee was re-organized with P. R. Gray for Chairman. The Convention adopted unanimously a resolution in favor of a free Railroad Law.

M. C. Beebe, formerly a member of the Legislature from this county, was chosen delegate to the State Convention at Williamsport, and, although no instructions were given, he will vote for Judge Williams for Judge of Supreme Court.

THE SURRATT TRIAL.

An Important Witness Turns Up.

HE IS SEEN WITH BOOTH ON ASSASSINATION DAY.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 21, 1867.

Judge Fisher decided the Court would follow the common practice as to the matter of recalling witnesses, viz: That a witness should consider himself discharged after his examination, unless told to remain.

Brooks, stabler, recalled, testified—Have seen Booth, Atzerott and Harold conversing with Surratt at my stable. Had a conversation with Atzerott about the trip of Surratt's. He showed me the conclusion of a letter from Surratt, and Atzerott said he had a letter from Surratt, but he would not let me see it all. I read the concluding paragraph. Atzerott said the letter was dated in Richmond, and Surratt understood the detectives were after him and was making his way North as fast as he could. That was in the early part of April, 1865. The conversation between us commenced by Atzerott calling me out on the pavement and telling me about the letter. I asked Atzerott to let me see the letter. I understood Surratt was making his way north from Richmond, and that the only difficulty Surratt was in was that detectives were after him. I understood Atzerott to mean government detectives. When these men came to the stables they would go to the back end and engage in conversation together in a low tone, at least I could not hear what was said, for they were at least one hundred and twenty feet from me.

James W. Pumphrey, John Fletcher and John F. Jaffry testified to various matters related in the former trial.

After recess Miss Honora Fitzpatrick, who lived at Mrs. Surratt's, testified that Surratt was intimate with Payne, Booth, Atzerott and the other conspirators, and they had interviews at Mrs. Surratt's house, on D street.

George F. Chahin was examined to corroborate Blynn and Hobart's statement, and testified to seeing the handkerchief marked J. H. Surratt, found by Blynn on the Wednesday after the assassination. Witness got the handkerchief from Blynn and gave it to one of Baker's detectives, named Grinnell.

Benjamin W. Vanderpool, of New York, testified he was in Washington, April 14th, 1865. I saw Booth on that day and spoke to him; I saw him three times on that day. Saw Booth first at Willard's, afterwards on Pennsylvania Avenue, between 10th and 11th, or 11th and 12th street.

The prisoner was called to stand up.

Question—Did you see the prisoner that day?

Answer—I saw him at the place last mentioned. He was with Wilkes Booth and two or three others. They were sitting around a table with glasses on it. I had been to the paymaster's, and coming down heard music at the place referred to and went in it, and a ballet dancer was performing. The table Booth was at was a round one, and he and his companions were talking. I saw them distinctly, as I was within a few feet of them. I cannot be mistaken about this.

Cross-examined, by Mr. Bradley.—I did not speak to Booth when I saw him in the place. I saw Booth and his companions were engaged in conversation. I was only attracted there by music. I never saw Surratt before, or since, until now. I took a good look at him this morning, and recognized him as the same man I saw with Booth. I am as confident that I saw Surratt as that I see you now. This was some time in the afternoon, and might have been after three o'clock. I cannot remember how they were dressed. Think Booth and Surratt had their hats off. Don't think Surratt then wore a goatee; if he did it was a very light one. I do not remember the hall, but think it was at a hall called "Metropolitan Hall."

Witness was asked why he did not communicate these facts before, and give as a reason that it was known he was intimate with Booth, and he was jeered by his brother officers, and he then hastened to his regiment. Witness never made this statement to any one until now. Was never summoned as a witness in this case, but having seen that the Surratt trial was in progress, came to see if Surratt was one of the men he saw with Booth, and recognized him as one of the party. He then informed Mr. Carrington of the fact, and was placed on the stand as a witness.

By Mr. Pierrepont—Witness has a great faculty of recollecting faces he has once seen, and has been subjected to a test of the matter.

Question. By Mr. Merrick—Would you recollect the face of the woman who was dancing?

Ans.—Did not pay much attention to her face. My attention was directed to her legs. [Laughter.]

The Court then took a recess till to-morrow.

THE PRESIDENTIAL TRIP.

Departure from Washington—Bulletins En Route—Secretary Hurts His Finger—First Blood for Delaware—Through Philadelphia Without Stopping, &c., &c.

[By Telegraph to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

WASHINGTON, June 21, 1867.

The Presidential party left at a quarter to eight this morning. The Postmaster General left last night, and joins the party in New York. Secretary Seward and General Rosseau accompany the President. Mr Stoeckle, Russian Minister, also accompanies the party as far as New York.

The President was received at the railroad station by Knights Templar with Masonic honors. The large crowd cheered as the party moved off.

ANNAPOLIS JUNCTION, 8:30 A. M.—Governor Swann, of Maryland, here came on board and paid his respects to the President and Secretary Seward, and accompanies them to Baltimore.

Governor Swann handed to the President a letter, couched in complimentary terms, and enclosing a resolution of the Maryland Constitutional Convention, earnestly inviting him to visit Annapolis on his return.

The President, in a note, begged the Governor to return his thanks to the Convention for this mark of their confidence and respect, saying that if practicable he will visit Annapolis on the 28th inst.

BALTIMORE, 9:20 A. M.—As the train reached here, a large crowd was in attendance. The President was received with cheers.

BALTIMORE, June 21.—9:45 A. M.—On arriving at the Philadelphia and Wilmington depot, the crowd there assembled repeatedly cheered the President and Secretary Seward.

A delegation of the Baltimore Knights Templar here joined their brethren of Washington.

Governor Swann, Collector of Customs, and others, took their leave. Many persons came into the state car to welcome the party, and wish them a pleasant journey.

The municipal authorities of Baltimore and many prominent citizens had extended the hospitalities of the city to the President, but the invitation was necessarily declined.

WILMINGTON, DEL., June 21, 12:50 P. M.—The President passed through here at 12:30. The train paused five minutes. Cheers were given, and President Johnson and Secretary Seward shook hands with the people. Mr. Seward had a finger hurt, and declared his was the first blood shed in Delaware.

PHILADELPHIA, June 21.—The Presidential party passed through West Philadelphia at half past one o'clock this afternoon without stopping, going over the new connection of the railroad from Baltimore to Trenton.

TRENTON, June 21—2:30 P. M.—The President's salute was fired by the State authorities when the train reached this city. The crowd rushed to the state car, where the President was met by Governor Ward and the State officers. The Governor escorted the President to the platform and introduced him to a large number of persons, including many ladies. The Governor and those accompanying him came into the car and paid their respects to Secretary Seward.

NEW BRUNSWICK, June 21—3:30 P. M.—A large crowd came to the car and the President shook hands with many citizens. Secretary Seward also appeared on the platform, and with the President received the hurrahs of the people.

ELIZABETH, June 21.—A number of persons assembled at the depot and paid their respects to the President.

NEWARK, June 21—4:30 P. M.—A large crowd was at the depot, who cheered the President.

JERSEY CITY, 5 P. M.—The President and party were met by Mayor Hoffman, of New York city, and Admiral Farragut and staff. The cheering was enthusiastic and frequently repeated.

Admiral Farragut's tug was in waiting to convey the party to the flag ship Franklin. As the tug left the railway pier the thousands of persons lining the dock cheered the visitors, while salutes were fired from Governor's Island. The flags of various nations were displayed in all directions, both from steamers and sailing craft.

The tug having reached the Franklin, the President was welcomed on board by the firing of a salute from the batteries, the ship's band playing, meanwhile, "Hail to the Chief," yards manned and sailors cheering.

Admiral Farragut had previously invited a large company of ladies and gentlemen, who were on board and participated in paying respects to the President and Secretary of State. A fine table of entertainment was provided for the party by the Admiral, and all were delighted with his attentions in showing the various parts of the ship.

As the party left the Franklin on the tug, the batteries of the vessel fired another salute, as also did two French frigates within view of the Franklin.

On board the Jean Bart the band played "Hail Columbia." The President and Admiral Farragut, who were at the bow of the boat, lifted their hats and bowed in compliment of the cheers with which the Frenchmen greeted them.

The Presidential party landed at Pier No. 1, North River, where they were received by the Knights Templar and the New York Light Guard, and by them escorted through Broadway to the Fifth Avenue Hotel, which was reached about 8 o'clock.

All along the route the President was greeted with cheers from immense multitudes in the streets and waving handkerchiefs by ladies from windows and balconies. The scene throughout was of a most enthusiastic and exciting character.

NEW YORK, June 21.—The arrival of the President was not made the occasion of any especial ceremonies of reception of a formal character. At nine o'clock the President and suite sat down to supper, and all retired early. Efforts made to obtain a speech from the President were unavailing.

UNION PACIFIC RAILWAY, E. D.

[Special Corresponence Pittsburgh Gazette.]

SALINA, (KANSAS,) June 10, 1867.

I have been here since Saturday afternoon, detained by the washing out of a small culvert below here. We hope to get off at noon. On Friday night and Saturday we had a succession of as heavy showers as I ever saw. All the little streams were swollen to the size of little rivers, and the Smoky Hill is said to be higher than it has been for six or seven years. The level prairie on which the town stands was literally one broad shallow sheet of water on Saturday evening.

I parted from my friends who are going to Pond Creek—two hundred miles east of Ellsworth—on Saturday morning. The party consisted of some twenty gentlemen, among whom were Major General Hancock, John D. Perry, Esq., President of this road, Mr. Shoemaker, Chief Contractor, Hon. Messrs. Thomas, of Maryland, Hubbard, of West Virginia, Mr. E. D. Kennedy, of Pittsburgh, several correspondents of Eastern papers, and others; altogether a very pleasant party. It was at first arranged that I should go, but it was afterwards arranged that I should return to Lawrence or Leavenworth to meet the Senatorial party—some forty in all—consisting of Messrs. Wade, Trumbull, Covode, and others, who have just returned from their excursion over the Union Pacific Railway of the Platte. I like the arrangement very well.

On Friday afternoon, after the main body of the excursionists had left us, we had a tremendous hurricane, the severest, Gen. Hancock said, that he had ever seen on the plains. One tent was torn up and prostrated, another was drawn from its fastenings. A frame building was blown down and scattered over the prairie as if it had been dry leaves. We dared not remain in the tents, and it was hard work to draw up against the wind. But there was no danger. The scene was truly sublime, especially in the northwest, where the dark clouds, tinged with sunshine, tossed in the tempest in the wildest confusion, causing a strange optical illusion that drew the attention of all the party—the appearance of a vast lake with well defined grassy shore on the near side, and huge and rugged mountains on the farther shore. The storm lasted about an hour and a half, and then partially lulled.

Some time in the night, while we were all in our tents, it began again, and was little, if any, less violent, and continued about two hours. This was accompanied by the broadest and most vivid flashes of sheet lightning I ever saw, and so incessant that there was hardly an interval of one second of darkness. This, too, passed over, and I fell asleep. But long before daylight I was aroused again by the dashing of rain upon the canvas as if the windows of heaven had been opened. After awhile I put my hand out upon the ground and found that the water had filled the ditch and was flowing into the tent. I had no light; but I got up and put my blankets, &c., upon a table, placed other things upon boxes, then mounted the table and listened to the fierce hissing and dashing of the rain upon the tent. At length morning dawned, and when we went out all was quiet and comparatively pleasant. About noon it poured down again and then again, causing the flood of which I have already spoken.

About nine o'clock I took leave of my friends and left the Fort in company with R. H. Shoemaker, Esq., Assistant manager of the road, and Mr. Wallace, in a spring wagon, to go to the cars at Clear Creek, three or four miles distant. On the way we came to what is called a ranch. When I made some inquiries about it, Mr. Wallace kindly proposed to leave me and return for me in an hour. Introducing me to Mr. Fisher, one of the contractors, I was invited in and had a very pleasant time. There were eight ladies, mostly the wives of the contractors, lively, intelligent and accomplished, and a number of gentlemen. We had a pleasant and interesting conversation, and partook of a bottle of Missouri champaigne, very good. Mr. Fisher gave me several specimens of stones and clay, one of the latter I think is very valuable, being more purely white than chalk, and so soft that it had to be handled carefully to avoid pulverising it.

As many readers may wish to know what kind of a habitation a ranch is, I shall attempt a description of this one. First—an excavation is made in the side of a bank or bluff, the back part of which is left nearly as perpendicular as a wall. A stone wall, one hundred and twenty feet long and some ten feet high, with a number of glass windows in it, runs along the front of this excavation, leaving a clear space of sixteen feet by twenty. From the top of the wall to the bank small rough logs are laid thickly, and upon these what I took to be a large mass of prairie grass. The whole is overlaid with a heavy coating of earth, sufficient to keep out the heaviest rain; for notwithstanding the deluge of the night before, this ranch was as dry as if not a drop had fallen. It was a rough but really comfortable habitation, and must be very warm in winter. The bank here was composed of strong particolored clay, of a light stone color, streaked with vermilion. I picked off a small specimen. There are many ranches in that region, some of them rude enough. I saw a few which were mere burrows.

So solid is the earth out here that wells are dug 25 or 30 feet deep and used without walling. I examined one to-day at the railroad station at this place, which is not yet finished. It is about fifteen feet in diameter and is now dug to the depth of 25 feet. It is round, and the sides, which are pretty perpendicular, have more the appearance of rough plastered walls than earth. From top to bottom there seems to be no difference in the soil or earth. It is a fine grayish sand, similar to the sand or mud bars of the Missouri. The water of the wells here, is pure and pleasant to the taste, and if wells are dug to the proper depth they never fail. The streams are narrow in their channels and have high banks fringed with trees of various kinds, principally of cotton wood. These remarks with regard to the compactness of the earth, wells, water and streams, apply to all the State of Kansas as far as I have seen it—about 225 miles. In many sections there are very fine springs.

The Smoky Hill which has it scources not far this side of Pike's Peak, and has a course of not less than four hundred miles above this place, is still rising, and has overflowed some extensive flats above. The rain must have been tremendous up towards the mountains. J. C.

[For the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

To the Memory of Miss McFadden, of Pittsburgh.

I.

Red-glared Wars flame from shore to shore,
The whirlwind's hoarse—its rushing sweep,
Heft thunders crash, chafed ocean's roar,
An avalanche's crushing leap.
Brightly flashing, its pomp is gleaming,
Proud steeds prancing, garlands wreathing,
Unfledg'd warriors swords unsheathing
Mother's lips their deep prayers breathing.

II.

Proudly the armies are marching
To the music of fife and bass-drum,
Each breast with its deep ardor swelling
Revealing the dread strife to come!
Fierce battles are fought, low lie the brave,
Strewn as dead leaves o'er the plain;
The Hero lies without a grave
Shrouded in powder, mud and rain!

III.

And from that gory, trampled field,
Are borne the shrieks of the wounded!
From death by starvation to shield,
E'er evermore shrouded
The aspiring hopes, the deeds so great,
In blank oblivion's sombre pall;
To escape so sad, so dire a fate,
The lengthened cries of woman call!

IV.

Upstart the thousands at the cry,
To hospitals and battle-fields:
Some in their eager impulse fly,
And some more thoughtful toil at home,
The sick and wounded to supply
With nourishing diet, with wine,
And jellies, and pillows, and sheets,
That no hero in lone anguish pine.

V.

And who, with purpose more sublime,
Than MISS MCFADDEN unceasingly,
Laboured in this scorching, burning clime,
Supplied needs ever recurringly.
So patient, never wearying,
Ever thoughtful, unfaltering,
In toil incessant, self-enduring,
Results with wise prescience scanning.

VI.

Large souled, noble-hearted woman,
For power, or wealth: for rank or fame,
Thou toilest'st not: had stronger man
Performed a thousandth part: a name,
Or wealth, or power to gain: what shower
Of benedictions, lurid praise
Had heralded his rising power—
Had wreathed his brow with laureled bays!

VII.

She from her bosom's tenderness;—
Pity of her kindly nature,
Her executive sleeplessness;
Her intellectual stature
Designed, combined and carried through
Works of intensest charity:
Mites in her grasp colossal grew,
In service of humanity.

VIII.

She sought not wealth, or fame's bright meed,
Its brilliant scintillations;
More skilled the soldier's cause to plead,
To poetize his homely rations
With strawberries, jellies and fruits;
Imparting the grateful emotion,
When wading through marshes and deep tangled roots,
His fate was the care of the nation.

IX.

Blest Saint, for thee the pearly gates
Have opened wide: pure spirits meet thee:
With outstretched hands the Saviour waits:
In glorious sheen, THOSE OTHERS greet thee,
Who, from the field of fire and blood,
Mid agony unutterable,
Passed from their misery to God;
To glory immensurable.

CONDENSED NEWS.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

The Ledger banquet, at the Continental, Philadelphia, Thursday night, it is represented was a truly grand affair. Speeches were made by Mayor McMichael, of the city, Mayor Hoffman, of New York, Governor Ward, of New Jersey, De Chaillu, the African explorer, and others. About eight hundred persons sat down to the banquet, which cost fifteen thousand dollars. The press club was totally ignored, and not a single working editor was honored with an invitation.

—Col Capron, it is generally expected, will be appointed Commissioner of Agriculture.

—The impeachment testimony has all been arranged, and will be submitted to the House in July, with a report accompanying it.

THE POPERY RIOT—THE CAUSE.

BIRMINGHAM, June 20.—The harangues of Maurand Murphy against Popery led to the great disturbances here. Within the last few days there has been great excitement, which looked at one time as if it would lead to very serious consequences.

At least one hundred thousand people were on the streets. The mob held the city, sacked several houses, and marched through the streets singing "Glory Hallelujah," "John Brown" and other choruses. The riot act was read and troops were ordered to the city from Manchester, but were not obliged to fire upon the people. The police used their cutlasses, and several persons were wounded, but none killed.

The excitement has somewhat lulled and it is thought the disturbance has ended.

Murphy has persisted every night in making long and offensive speeches against the Roman Catholic Church, ridiculing its rights.

Some attempts to renew the disorder have been put down and comparative quiet now prevails.

[By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW YORK, June 21.—The Tribune's Washington special says: The Government is informed by the United States Consul at Vera Cruz, and Commander Leroy, of the Tullahoma, that when Santa Anna arrived there, in the Virginia, he announced with considerable flourish that he came there by the desire and at the request of Juarez and Maximilian, and backed and supported by the United States Government, to take control of the Mexican Government. These facts were immediately made known to the United States Consul and Commander Leroy, who, believing Santa Anna's statement to be false, came together and consulted as to the course to pursue. Commander Leroy at once repaired aboard the Virginia and informed Santa Anna that he and his suite must come aboard the United States vessel Tullahoma, and spend the night. It then being nearly dark, they were conducted to the Tullahoma and kept there all night.

On the following morning early, Commander Leroy had Santa Anna and his party again placed on board the steamer Virginia, with her Mexican passengers, and was conducted by the Tullahoma twenty miles out to sea, and then set at liberty, with instructions to Santa Anna not to appear again in that vicinity.

The Tribune's special says: There is official authority for the statement that Mr. Seward enclosed in his letter to Juarez copies of despatches from Queen Victoria and Napoleon to the President, asking the United States Government to use its influence with Juarez to preserve the life of Maximilian.

The Herald's correspondent writes that there is urgent need of some one at the seat of Government to represent American interests and restore the prestige of the United States, which suffered considerably by the Sherman-Campbell fiasco.

On the same day, and at the same place, a soldier received twenty-five lashes for stealing a gun. On the next day a soldier was "spread" for two hours for getting drunk, mosquitoes and buffalo gnats torturing him terribly.

The battle fought on the 12th, at O'Fallons' Station, was between sixty whites, belonging to Wilson and Clagger's train, en route for Phil Kearney, and from one hundred to two hundred Indians. Nine Indians are supposed to be killed, but the whites sustained no loss. Six companies of troops left Sedgwick for Fort Sanders last Saturday.

The Indians are quiet between the North Platte and Denver, but trouble continues between Denver and Laramie.

Denver papers of the 14th announce the arrival of five Platte coaches and forty passengers, with a heavy mail; also two Smoky Hill coaches. The Indians took seventy-two horses and mules from Hugo Station, and killed one soldier. General Sherman is said to be displeased with the Colorado volunteers, their movements not being sufficiently prompt. He is still at North Platte.

Wealth, Wisdom, Wit,

Frequently depend on good digestion, at least we are sure that good health and a good temper depend on good digestion, which any of our readers can have by a careful attention to a few good rules of dietetics, and the use of a few bottles of DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER, whose invaluable tonic powers have restored many a mental as well as a physical valetudinarian to his wonted health and vigor. And no wonder, for it is a compound of the most valuable roots and plants known to herbal medicine. It always does good, and has cured some of the most loathsome and intractable diseases of the blood which have ever afflicted mankind.

If the great cures made by DR. KEYSER'S BLOOD SEARCHER could be exhibited in their proper light, and brought to the notice of the afflicted, it would be conferring a boon on the world. And, besides, Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher is no secret remedy. There is not a plant or root used in its distillation that will not be made known to any one who will solicit the information in a proper manner. Its ingredients are perfectly applicable in all non-febrile diseases, and whilst the Blood Searcher eradicates all old and stubborn diseases, it at the same time takes away the aptitude to most contagious and malarious diseases of an acute character, and it does so by fortifying the constitutional strength and adding to its power of resistance.

Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher, 140 Wood street, and take no other. One dollar per bottle, six for $5.

Consultation rooms 120 Penn street, from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M.

A First Class Barber Shop.

We direct the attention of our readers to a really first-class barber shop in our sister city Allegheny, at No. 190 Federal street, of which Mr. H. B. Williamson is the enterprising and accommodating proprietor. It contains six chairs, and in addition to the proprietor, five gentlemanly barbers, who are recognized amongst the very best in the profession, are constantly in attendance to wait upon patrons. In connection with the saloon is a well kept and orderly bath house with five of the most improved baths for hot, cold or shower bathing. Mr. Williamson has been twenty years in the business, and knows how to conduct it in good style and in a manner calculated to win him friends and customers. He attends promptly and in the most scientific manner to cupping and leeching. We commend Mr. Williamson to our Allegheny friends as a clever and honorable business gentleman. Shampooning attended to, and a lady will attend to ladies at their residences.

Really Astonishing.—We mean the extraordinary low prices that Dry Goods are selling at on the west corner of Market and Fourth streets, at Gardner & Stewart's great sale of New Goods. As this firm's stock is all new, the mystery is at once explained, as new goods can be bought at less than one half the price that old stocks of goods in the city cost. The success has been wonderful. The ladies are getting to understand this, and they are constantly crowded with eager customers, and all unite in saying their's are the cheapest goods in the city. Their Dress Goods are cheaper than before the war, and in the line of domestic goods, they sell dark merino prints for 12½ cents, and other goods in same proportion. Our readers will also bear in mind that Gardner has now but one place of business, and that on the west corner of Market and Fourth streets, No. 69, and as the entire building is painted red, it can easily be found. We advise our readers to go there.

Singular Incident.—Robert Otterson died in Springfield, Pa., last week. He had been insane for thirty years, but recovered his senses on his death bed, and conversed intelligently of occurrences that transpired the day and week previous to his insanity, making inquiries about a yoke of oxen which he had valued, of the work on the farm, and of old neighbors who had been dead for years. The intervening space was a perfect blank to his memory.

Painting.—The place of business of Mr. C. C. Harbaugh, house, sign, decorative and ornamental Painter, is No. 175 Lacock street, Allegheny City. All orders left at the above place, or at No. 43 Federal street, will receive prompt attention.

Pittsburgh Central High School—Meeting of the Alumni Association.

The Plymouth Congregational Church, on Hand street, was well filled with a fashionable and appreciative audience last evening, to witness the reunion of the alumni of the Central High School. Many familiar face of scholars in days gone by were noticeable throughout the audience. The reunion was of a pleasant character throughout, and the exercises of such a nature, as to show that none of the alumni had retrograded since leaving Alma Mater. The excercises were commenced with the Valedictory of the retiring President, W. H. Moore, followed by the Inaugural Address of the President elect, J. G. Bryant. Both addresses were well written, and delivered in good style.

Next followed the poem by Miss Jennie E. Branstrop, read in a clear and forcible manner and well received. The address to the association was then delivered by John H. Kerr, Esq., of the class of 1860. Mr. Kerr is one of the promising young men at our bar, and his address last evening was a very happy effort, replete throughout with good sense, and listened to attentively by the audience. The performance closed with an essay by Miss Julia Demmler, written in good style and well read. Altogether the exercises were very good and reflect credit on those participating in them. Such meetings serve to bind closer the attachments formed in our earlier years, and should be well attended by all who wish to cherish the friendship of school-boy days.

A First Class Establishment.

From time to time we have directed the attention of our readers to the plumbing gas and steam fitting establishment of Thomas T. Ewens, No 165 Wood street, near Sixth. Mr. Ewens has long held a front rank in his business, and has been favored with a large share of the public patronage. A careful and practical mechanic himself and devoting his entire attention to the work entrusted to his care, he has ever proven worthy of the public trade. He has on hand in his sales room a fine assortment of gas fixings, which embrace everything in that line. The stock of pumps, suitable for the country trade, will be found unusually large and well selected, comprising all the improved styles introduced. These Mr. Ewens will erect at the most reasonable terms in any part of the country. He likewise attends to all orders for work in the rural districts in the promptest and most faithful manner. Steam fitting is made a specialty, and all work of this character performed is warranted to prove satisfactory. For any and everything in his way, either in materials or work, we can cheerfully commend Mr. Ewens to our readers.

Literary Contest.

The third annual contest between the Irving and Philomathean Literary Societies of the University, took place last evening at Masonic Hall, witnessed by a large and enthusiastic audience. A fine orchestra was in attendance, discoursing sweet music, which added much to the enjoyment of the occasion. The exercises consisted of select orations, essays, original orations and debates, in all of which the performers acquitted themselves very creditably. At the close of the debate, after considerable deliberation, the judges rendered their decision as follows:

Select Oration—William H. McGray, Philomathean; Essay—Robert C. Moore, Irving; Original Oration—Robert G. Young, Irving; Debate—Question, "Do Animals Reason." Joel L. Bigham, Irving Society, who had the negative. The announcement was received with immense applause.

The forty-third anniversary of the Western University Alumni Association will be held in University Hall, Thursday evening, June 27th, 1867. Orator, Rev. Herrick Johnson; Poet, George J. Whitney.

Assault With a Hatchet.

Edward Duncan is a tenant of Robert Franklin, in the Seventh ward, and yesterday morning Duncan, thinking the fence around his lot needed repairing, took his hatchet and some nails and started to make the repairs. On his picking up a piece of board, with which he intended to mend the fence, Mr. Franklin, his landlord, seeing him pick it up, ordered him to lay it down, threatening to cane him if he did not do so. Duncan refused to comply, whereupon Franklin came at him with the cane, and Duncan turned on him with the hatchet, not striking him, but threatening to do so, and taking hold of his coat. Franklin, remembering that "better part of valor," very discreetly beat a hasty retreat, fearing to stop, lest the man with the hatchet was near. He finally "pulled up" at Alderman Butler's office and made an information against Duncan, charging him with assault and battery. A warrant was issued, Duncan arrested and held for a hearing at nine o'clock A. M. to-day.

Presentation.

A number of the friends of Conductor O. P. Torrence, of the Pittsburgh and Erie Railroad, yesterday honored him with a substantial token of their regard for him as a gentleman and courteous officer. A sumptuous wine dinner, to which Mr. Torrence had been invited, at the St. Charles Hotel, was made the occasion of the presentation. Colonel J. T. F. Wright, in a few appropriate words, delivered to the recipient an elegantly wrought and magnificent gold shield or badge, which bore an appropriate inscription, expressive of the high regard in which he was held by his friends. Mr. Torrence responded appropriately, and several other gentlemen indulged in remarks. We have long regarded Mr. Torrence as one of the most faithful and accommodating conductors of the Erie Road, and with much pleasure record this tribute of respect from his friends.

An Excellent Drive.

"Excellent roads to Perrysville," is the expression on the lips of every lover of delightful evening drives. This is the only direction we advise our readers to take if in quest of pleasure behind a spanking team or four in hand. The terminus of the road—the White House, in keeping of Mr. Thos. Costamagna, is not the least attractive feature of the drive. He has all the enterprise and administrative abilities to render his resort even more popular and famous than it has ever been. All guests will receive the carefulest attention. The tables are always spread with the choicest viands, and it is not saying too much when we assert that no where else in the country can a better meal be procured at slight notice. Enjoy the pleasant weather and good roads by a trip to Perrysville, and fail not to stop for rest and refreshment at Costamagna's White House.

Mark Him.

An information was made before Alderman Butler, by a very respectable citizen, who requests that his name should not be used, against one Marks, a butcher in the Seventh ward, charging him with selling impure and unsaleable meat. The gentleman alleges that he sent a little girl after the meat yesterday morning, and that Marks gave her meat that was tainted. We cannot see why the gentleman objects to the use of his name in a case of this kind, for if there is one man who deserves punishment more than another, it is the one who, for the sake of a few dollars, would run the risk of taking the life of his friends and patrons. If the facts in this case are as alleged, this scamp should be marked by all who have an aversion to dishonest men and spoiled meat.

Death of Mr. James Keogh.

We regret to announce the death of Mr. James Keogh, of Port Perry, which resulted yesterday from the terrible accident recorded in our last issue. Mr. Keogh was an esteemed and worthy citizen. The possessor of many noble and endearing tracts of head and heart, he had won for himself a host of friends who will learn of his demise with no ordinary sorrow. He had been extensively engaged in the coal business, and has long been regarded as one of the most prosperous and well doing citizens of Port Perry. He leaves no family, his wife and child having died some time ago. Coroner Clawson will probably hold an inquest on deceased to-day, and inquire fully into the cause of the accident.

Reading Contest.

On Monday evening next the annual reading contest for the "Davidson Prize," between the pupils of the Pittsburgh Female College, takes place at the chapel. A number of the young ladies have entered the contest, and very spirited emulation may be expected. The following gentlemen have been selected to act as judges on the occasion: Rev. J. S. Dickerson, Rev. W. H. Locke and J. H. Hopkins, Esq. Doubtless there will be a large attendance, as the reading contests of the College have been hitherto exceedingly entertaining and instructive. The friends of the College are respectfully invited to attend.

A Young gentleman was thrown from a horse last evening in Duquesne Borough, and seriously injured. He was picked up insensible and carried to his residence in Allegheny city, where medical aid was summoned. We learn that his injuries, though serious, will not necessarily prove fatal.

Abandonment.—Thomas M'Glow is charged before Alderman Strain with having abandoned his wife, on oath of Celia Gorman, a sister of the abandoned wife. She alleges that Thomas does nothing towards supporting his wife and children, who are in great want. M'Glow was arrested and held for a hearing at one o'clock to-day.

Celia Gorman also charges Catherine McGlow, a sister of Thomas, with assault and battery. Alderman Strain, before whom the charge was made, issued a warrant, on which Catherine was arrested and held for a hearing to-day at three o'clock.

Narrow Escape.—Yesterday morning a little girl, about four years of age, daughter of Mr. Fehl, on Grant street, narrowly escaped being run over by a bread wagon. The wagon was passing down the street, and the child attempted to cross in front of it, when she was struck by the horse and knocked down, fortunately falling far enough from the horse to escape the wheel, as the front one had passed her before the horse could be checked. The child was picked up and carried into the house by Dr. De Roletts, almost insensible from fright, but not in the least injured.

Surety of the Peace.—A "mysterious affair" occurred yesterday on Grant street, the particulars of which we were unable to gather, resulting in George R. Cochran being arrested and held for a hearing, on a charge of surety of the peace, preferred by Joseph E. Robinson, a "mysterious" individual, formerly connected with the Allegheny Times. He alleges that Cochran threatened to shoot him the first time he met him, but Cochran has not kept his word, if he made such a threat, for he saw Robinson in Alderman McMaster's office, where the information was made, and did not shoot at him even.

Committed for Court.—Peter Berger, arrested on oath of Mrs. Joyce, before Justice Thomas Dumin, of Collins township, on a charge of keeping a ferocious dog, was committed in default of bail to answer at Court. Berger keeps a very cross dog, and a few days since, when Mrs. Joyce was passing his barn, the dog ran out and caught her by the arm, lacerating it in a dreadful manner, and would probably have killed her had it not been for a gentleman who was near at the time.

LOTS FOR SALE IN TARENTUM, AND NEAR IT.—Tarentum is situated on the west bank of the Allegheny river, 21 miles above the City of Pittsburgh. The lots are generally in size 50 feet front and 150 deep, from street to alley; and also of 3 to 8 acres near the Borough and the Soda Works, well adapted for country residences, being rich soil, well watered, and commanding a beautiful and extensive view of the river and surrounding country. Persons desirous of starting manufacturing establishments, such as rolling mills, woolen factories, paper mills, &c., would find the location, near the river or railroad, admirably suited for such purposes. Capitalists will be encouraged to purchase by moderate prices and easy terms, as it is intended that the superior advantages of the place—as to abundant supply of water, coal, limestone, &c., and railroad and river facilities—shall be liberally offered for manufacturing purposes generally.

Trains on the Western Pennsylvania Railroad pass to and from Tarentum, east and west, several times daily. For a map of survey of the lots apply to Hon. H. M. BRACKENRIDGE, at his residence near the Soda Works, or J. N. PURVIANCE, Tarentum.

Pittsburgh Gazette

SATURDAY JUNE 22, 1867.

THE CASH RECEIPTS for Advertising of the GAZETTE, have been in advance of each and every contemporary in the city, since the incoming of the present Proprietors. We challenge denial from any of our neighbors, believing that figures won't lie.

WENDELL PHILLIPS, after allowing his personal malice to pervert his judgment, and to place him in a humiliating position before the nation, is endeavoring to squirm out of the dilemnia. The more he squirms, the more he will find deliverance cannot come by the means he uses.

WHEN the Attorney General seeks to give his construction of a law, the force of the law itself, he is guilty both of an impertinence and a crime. The only law-making power in this country is Congress, and whatever the President or the Supreme Court may say to the contrary, the will of Congress ought to stand, and will be made to stand.

WHEN the Supreme Court, in the Maryland case, decided that Congress had constitutional authority to create a National Bank, President JACKSON, and the whole democratic party after him, derided the idea that the decision bound the co-ordinate departments of the government. The democratic rule was that the Supreme Court could only bind parties before it as litigants. Now, the democrats seek to elevate the President into an Autocrat, whose rescript can abrogate a law passed by the chambers.

NO DOUBT now remains but Congress will come together next month. Some journals recommend Congress to make the Reconstruction laws so plain and definite that the President will be constrained to obey. It still remains in doubt how far that high official means to go in enforcing Mr. STANSBERRY's opinions. If he undertakes to carry out those opinions, he ought manifestly to be impeached, and without delay. When the question shall be raised whether the President is supreme, or the People, through their Representatives, it is best to make a speedy conclusion of the debate.

IT WAS held by Mr. ALEXANDER HAMILTON and the Federalists generally, that a decision of the Supreme Court was binding not only upon the parties to the particular suit, but also upon the executive and legislative departments of the Government. Mr. THOMAS JEFFERSON and the Republicans held a decision of the Supreme Court concluded only the parties to the suit in which judgment was rendered. This was a manifest deduction from the principle that each department, in its proper sphere, is independent of the other. Mr MARTIN VAN BUREN, in his History of Political Parties, explains, with his characteristic slyness, that it was only when the Democrats elected a President who was originally a Federalist, and appointed a Chief Justice of the same antecedents, that any other doctrine took root in their ranks.

WHOEVER HAS WATCHED the ebb and flow of political events in Europe since the Revolution in France in 1789, has been struck with the gradual decadence of imperialism. Periods there have been in particular countries when the old ideas seemed to be gaining ground; but these periods have been of short duration. On the whole, there has been a steady gain to the popular cause. In France the influence of the great Revolution has proved so favorable both to civil and social ameliorations that it has come to be esteemed, notwithstanding all its atrocities and bloodshed, as the most truly benificent and fruitful event in the national history. In Prussia and Austria the right and power of the people in government is becoming more and more recognized. Imperialism, though acknowledged in name and form, is constrained to give way in fact and substance. In England, where civil freedom in many of its distinctive attributes has been more fully established than in any other European country, but where, also, exists the most powerful aristocracy, the demand for universal suffrage has become so strong as to menace the government by the exhibition of a formidable turbulence. The Ministry feel impelled to concede something by extending the elective franchise considerably, but refuse to grant all that is required, because to grant it would be in effect the abdication of the aristocracy.

Let no one suppose these movements in different countries do not stand related. Early in the present century BYRON said he heard a bird singing, "By and by the people will be stronger." He listened with the ear of a true poet and the heart of a genuine man. In these days it has come to pass that the people have gained strength, and are disposed to wield it for their own advantage. But the end is not yet in Europe. Indeed, what is now manifest is only the beginning of the end. More and more the people will reclaim the power wrongfully and of a long time withheld from them, until they shall stand complete, clothed with all the rights with which Nature richly endowed them.

WHEN THE PRESIDENT was striving to defeat the passage of the Military Government Bill, he saw its provisions with the same eyes Congress did, and spoke of it thus:

"The power thus given to the commanding officer over all the people of each district is that of an absolute monarch—his mere will is to have the place of all law. The law of the States is now the only rule applicable to the subject placed under his control, and that is completely displaced by the clause which declares all interference of the State authority to be null and void. He alone is permitted to determine what are the rights of persons and property, and he may protect them in such way as in his discretion may seem proper. It places at his free disposal all the land and goods in his district, and he may distribute them without let or hindrance, to whom he pleases. Being bound by no State law, and there being no other law to regulate the subject, he may make a criminal code of his own, and he can make it as bloody as any recorded in history, or he can reserve the privilege of acting upon the impulse of his private passions in each case that arises. He is bound by no rules of evidence; there is, indeed, no provision by which he is authorized or required to take evidence at all. Everything is a crime which he chooses to call so, and all persons are condemned whom he pronounces to be guilty. He is not bound to make any report or keep any record of his proceedings. He may arrest his victims wherever he finds them, without warrant, accusation, or proof of probable cause. If he gives them a trial before he inflicts punishment he gives it of his grace and mercy, not because he is commanded so to do. To a casual reader of the bill it might seem that some kind of trial was secured by it to persons accused of crime; but such is not the case. The officer may allow local civil tribunals to try offenders, but of course this does not require that he shall do so. If any State or Federal court presumes to exercise its legal jurisdiction by the trial of a malefactor without his special permission, he can break it up and punish the judges and jurors as being themselves malefactors. He can save his friends from justice and despoil his enemies contrary to justice."

He and his Cabinet adviser have been considering the law ever since, and have concluded that the view then taken was all wrong; that such powers as were then described were not in the bill; that Congress never designed to put them in it; and that if the purpose had been entertained the right to accomplish it was lacking. This transformation of opinion was not the result of conviction, but of contrivance. Failing to prevent the passage of the bill by denouncing its scope and spirit, the effort now is to render it inoperative and void, by denying that it contains provisions that are plainly written. This is abrogating law by explaining it out of existence.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

In these days so fraught with the spirit of unity, an intolerant spirit in any denomination, either as a body, or by one representing it, should be discountenanced and reprobated everywhere. Too frequently the unwise and illiberal course of a prominent individual, in a leading denomination, is regarded as the views and policy of the whole body, instead of holding the person offending responsible. The history of each sect is too well known, or ought to be, in these progressive days, so that each one should be judged according to its course as a body, and not by the remarks, or course, of any particular person in its communion. The unfortunate remark of an ex-Moderator of a Presbyterian body, that the Episcopal Church of the United States had an "imbecile pulpit," should not be regarded as the voice of the entire body, but simply the views of one with a narrow sectarian spirit. If the remark had been made that "imbeciles" filled the pulpit of every denomination, then it would be applicable only to such characters. We name such ministers of the Episcopal Church as Bishop McIlvaine, of Ohio; Rev. Dr. Tyng, of New York; Bishop Stevens, of this State; Dr. Schenck, of Brooklyn, and other well known clergymen, not because the Independent speaks of some of them in its rebuke, because it views men and things only in one direction, while we regard them in the fullest evangelical sense, as peers with the ablest of the ministers connected with the body to which the ex-Moderator belongs. The discussions now so exciting and widely extended in the Episcopal Church, in reference to Rituals, and kindred topics, have provoked some very illiberal remarks, generally from other bodies, in regard to this Church. The same unchristian spirit has been indulged to a very considerable extent of late by members of a body which has recently been reconstructed in a neighboring city, because the course of a single individual in a denomination from which it obtained its being, acted on his own responsibility as he saw proper in the case, they have taken occasion to speak of the Church as a whole, and its chief ministers, in a way that history will not bear them out, and will likely rebound upon them hereafter with terrific force. We mention the matter, not to discuss it, but simply to place it as a fit companion alongside with the case first noted. Such an unchristian spirit is the wrong way to cultivate Christian unity, either among bodies professing the same doctrines, or secure the union of all denominations upon a common platform.

A certain New York weekly, which has recently thrown off the restraint of being a religious paper, in order to gratify its "broad gauge" views more fully and honorably, has an article from one of its ministerial contributors, on "Masquerade Balls," which opens with a denunciation of the ultra "blue" view of popular amusements. The writer has evidently read only certain portions of the Bible, or else he would not treat some things in the light he does. However, the writer says so many good things against masquerade balls, that we are disposed to throw the mantle of charity over his opening paragraphs upon amusements. The writer groups his objections under four heads, namely: First, The extravagance; Second, The unnecessarily late hours; Third, The round dances; Fourth, The mask. In discussing the third point reference is made to the remark of the New York Chief of Police that three-fourths at least of the abandoned young women of that city were approached through the round dances by the villains who affected their ruin. There may be more devils than fingers in the grasp with which some whiskered scoundrel presses a fair young girl to his bosom in the delirious reel of a waltz. Take the view of a gifted author, whom nobody ever charged with orthodox prudery. He says: We saw (at a private ball) a few young men looking very soberly; and, upon inquiry, learned that they were engaged to certain ladies of the corps de ballet. Nor did we wonder at the spectacle of a young woman whirling, in a decollete state, and in the embrace of a warm youth, around a heated room, induced a little sobriety upon the lover's face, if not sadness in his heart. The writer treats with great severity the last point —the mask. He shows that the masquerade is an arrangement by which a company of young people lay aside, for a time, their identity, and escape the judgment of men on their actions. Speaking of "private masquerades" of a "select" order, the least objectionable form of mask balls, he argues it gives facilities, not only for entrance into a private house, but for operations when once within of a questionable character. A young rake, for example, plays the role of a backwoodsman or a Sioux warrier. It is, of course, in character for him to assume a certain lawlessness, that serves well to cover any liberties he inclines to take. If his fair partner in the dance allows his familiarities, he may, easily, go on to something bolder. If she resents them he has a ready excuse under the plea of the part he is acting; and at the worst, is sheltered under the mask.

About a year ago the Tract Society of the M. E. Church offered three premiums for three tracts on the evils resulting from the use of tobacco. In response to this offer thirty-seven manuscripts were received. These manuscripts were submitted to the respective committees, among whom we notice the names of Bishops SIMPSON and JANES, who decided "that no one of the essays is of sufficient merit to answer the demands of the Church and times." The manuscripts were all returned to their respective authors, and for the present the offer of the Society is withdrawn.

In the article on St. Louis, Missouri, by JAMES PARTON, in the Atlantic Monthly, he thinks the Catholics, French, German and Irish, are nearly half the population; and the property of the Church, in buildings and lands, is estimated at fifteen millions of dollars. From the single tent in which the mass was first celebrated on the site of the city, one hundred years ago, succeeded soon by a small church of logs, the number of places of worship has increased, until now there are twenty-nine Catholic churches and chapels. Mr. PARTON thinks, however strong the Catholic Church is at points in the West like St. Louis, that it will never ultimately gain the West.

Gerard Hallock, the late well known New York editor and publisher, built some years ago a Church in New Haven, Conn., at a cost of $119,000. It has been conveyed by the heirs to a body of trustees for the sum of $25,000, and is now under the pastoral care of Rev. J. H. Carroll. The especial object of this church is to "preach religion and not politics."

The need of emigration of the evangelical type of Christians to "Old Virginia," is about the best means to use by which that State can be properly reconstructed. Its old religion, its old churches cannot save it. A minister writes from Prince William county—think of the name—to the Home Missionary that half the population is more than half heathen. Here is a sample: A farmer's son, fourteen years of age, is interrogated thus: "Do you know who made you?" "No!" "Do you know who Jesus Christ is?" "No!" "Did not God make you?" "Y-es!" "What else did God make?" "Don't know!"

Rev. Messrs. L. C. Mattack, Cyrus Prindle and Luther Lee, the most prominent leaders and gifted ministers in the American Wesleyan Connection, have recently united with the Methodist Episcopal Church. They have just issued a "Fraternal Greeting" to their associates in the ministry, who have decided with them to enter the M. E. Church. They say they have ascertained almost certainly that more than fifty ministers of the American Wesleyan body will be enrolled among the traveling ministers of the Methodist Episcopal Church before the close of the present year. Twenty-five have already joined the spring conferences, and the others may be expected to join the summer and fall conferences. The Wesleyans went out from the M. E. Church over twenty years ago with twenty traveling preachers. They now return with fifty, and with hearts of love for the old Church, which they left for conscience sake.

The action of the Old School Presbyterian General Assembly, in regard to the Declaration and Testimony and its signers, is generally well received, except by those who have been affected by its decision. Even in portions of Kentucky and Missouri some are content with the Assembly's action, and will return to the bosom of the Church. The Free Christian Commonwealth and Missouri Presbyterian assail the Assembly and the paper adopted by it, with unusual violence, and evidently mean to continue the war.

A world of meaning, to the unconverted and unregenerate, is conveyed in the touching dying words of the Rev. JOEL HAWES, D. D., for nearly fifty years pastor of the Congregational Church in Hartford, Conn., who said, in reply to a remark that he was almost home, "Oh, yes, and I am so thankful that the great work of preparation has not been put off until now."

The endowment fund of the Baptist Theological Seminary at Rochester, N. Y., has reached nearly one hundred thousand dollars. The old buildings have been sold, and new ones are to be erected immediately. A class of thirteen graduated at this Institution last week.

The singular custom prevails at English tea meetings, held in churches, which is novel to Americans, that of singing a blessing or grace to the tune of "Old Hundred." After the tables are emptied, at the call of the pastor, the people rise up and sing thanks.

A writer in the American Presbyterian, speaking of "Open Communion," thinks it is an absurdity, when it means communion with the unbaptized. He affirms he would not for a moment consider a proposal to admit an unbaptized person to the communion, and therefore would not ask a Baptist so to stultify himself and ignore his own doctrine as to invite him to commune with him while he believes he is unbaptized. He protests against a sham union, and a sham unity, and if he held the Baptist notion about immersion, he would no more receive a Presbyterian to the communion table than he would now receive a Quaker.

Obscenity in the Ruins of Pompeii.

There is one matter in relation to Pompeii that is seldom touched on by writers, and which I dare not touch too closely, to-wit: The horrible depravity of the Pompeians, as illustrated by the frescoes, mosaics, sculptors and bronze statues that are found. Hundreds of these vile objects have been carried away to the museum in Naples, and put in a room which no woman is allowed to visit; but there are still houses in Pompeii that are kept locked, and others that have such sculptures over the doors on the outside that the guides hurry past them when there are women in the party. Even in private houses there are scores of frescoes—magnificently executed, too—which one would dare to visit only in company with his nearest and dearest friends, if ladies, and in other houses pictures and statues than which none can imagine any thing worse. I can not understand why the writers on these matters have been so anxious to conceal the faults of the ancients. It is a fact which deserves to be generally known. Great God! what a picture of corruption in Imperial Rome is revealed to one who looks into Pompeii with anything like thoroughness. The very stone of the door posts tells a tale more damnable than was ever invented by modern thought. Sodom was clean and Gomorrah was pure, compared with Pompeii. Where was ever a people on earth, before or since Pompeii, that "advertised the ways that lead down to hell" by sculptures placed in the open light of the streets? "Out, damned spot!" cried the still infant genius of modern civilization and Christianity, as it looked in upon Pompeii, and Vesuvius responded to the command and sent his consuming fires to do the work.—Chicago Tribune.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE.

Its icy hand falls alike upon youthful innocence and hoary-haired age. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectorant, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, Darting Pains in the Side and Back, Emaciation and a general negative condition of the whole system.

The Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON'S PREPARED PREPARATION for the cure of Consumption, Asthma, Bronchitis, Coughs, Colds, and all Throat and Lung Affections, has been in use over 10 years with the most marked success. The remedy, prepared under Mr. Wilson's personal supervision, also a pamphlet containing the original prescription with full and explicit directions for preparation and use, together with a short history of his case, may be obtained of the following reliable Druggist,

JOSEPH FLEMING,

No 84 Market street, Pittsburgh.

Each package will bear his written signature across the end of the box. For pamphlet containing the original Prescription, the Prepared Remedy, or more full particulars address or call on the above agent, or Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON. je20:TTS

AN OLD FRIEND.

For many years the Press of the country has chronicled the beneficial effects of HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS. Editors, authors, physicians, merchants, officers of the army and navy, chemists counselors, ministers of the gospel; in short, a great cloud of witnesses of every profession, trade and calling, have testified to its efficacy as a tonic and regulating medicine. The names and statements of these witnesses have been published in the public prints. Many of them are well known to the whole public. Their testimony has never been challenged or impugned. This has been tried and pronounced, on the authority of those whose lives and health it has preserved, a pure, harmless and eminently salutary preparation. Attempts have been made to rival it. They have failed. There is nothing equal to the enjoyment experienced by the afflicted when using this valuable specific. Its mild tone, its sure and vigorous action upon a disordered stomach, and the cleansing of the entire human body, recommend it to the whole community as a RELIABLE FRIEND.

PINUS CANADENSIS.

A tree which is abundant in Canada, Nova Scotia, and the more northern parts of the New England States, and is also found in the elevated and mountainous regions of the Middle States, and abounds in medicinal virtues. Dr. Swett, of Boston, has prepared a medicine from the sweet inside bark of the pine tree, called POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND, which is one of rare value in all debilitated states of the kidneys. It acts like a charm in all diseases of mucous membranes, enabling them to regain their lost tone and energy. It will be found well adapted to all those diseases, where Buchu has been tried and failed. It is likewise well suited to chronic coughs, and an infallible specific for old and debilitated cases of asthma. Many persons who at first only took a bottle of this medicine, to try, afterwards came back and got a dozen, or half dozen, which effected radical cures of diseases of the bladder and kidney of years standing.

Diabetes, a disease that has been looked upon as among the incurables, is immediately relieved by it. Notice the certificate of Asa Goodnue, published some time ago.

The United States Dispensatory, speaking of the pine, says: "It is prescribed in leucorrhœa, gleet, and other diseases of the urinary passages; in piles and chronic inflammation or ulceration of the bowels, in chronic catarrhal affections, and in various forms of rheumatism." It is exceedingly valuable in all gravelly affections, bloody urine, and where there is red and white sediment. It can be taken without interruption to one's usual avocations; and instead of sickening, produces a bracing, healthy power of endurance and vigor. Price, $1 per bottle; six for $5.

Ask for POLAND'S WHITE PINE COMPOUND. For sale by the gross, dozen or single bottle, at DR. KEYSER'S Great Medicine Store, 140 Wood street. ap20

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

THE
UNION PACIFIC
RAILROAD CO.
Are now constructing a Railroad from OMAHA, NEBRASKA, westward towards the Pacific Ocean, making, with its connections, an unbroken line
ACROSS THE CONTINENT.
The Company now offer a limited amount of their
FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS,
Having thirty years to run, and bearing annual interest, payable on the first day of January and July, in the City of New York, at the rate of SIX PER CENT. IN GOLD,
At Ninety Cents on the Dollar.
This road was completed from Omaha 305 miles west on the 1st of January, 1867, and is fully equipped, and trains are regularly running over it. The Company has now on hand sufficient iron, ties, etc., to finish the remaining portion to the eastern base of the Rocky Mountains, 212 miles, which is under contract to be done September 1st of this year, and it is expected that the entire road will be in running order from Omaha to its western connection with the Central Pacific, now being rapidly built eastward from Sacramento, Cal., during 1870.
Means of the Company.
Estimating the distance to be built by the Union Pacific to be 1,565 miles, the United States Government issues its Six per cent. Thirty year Bonds to the Company as the road is finished at the average rate of about $28,250 per mile, amounting to $44,208,000.
The Company is also permitted to issue its own First Mortgage Bonds to an equal amount, and at the same time, which BY SPECIAL ACT OF CONGRESS ARE MADE A FIRST MORTGAGE ON THE ENTIRE LINE, the bonds of the United States being subordinate to them.
The Government makes a donation of 12,800 acres of land to the mile, amounting to 20,032,000 acres, estimated to be worth $30,000,000, making the total resources, exclusive of the capital, $118,416,000; but the full value of the lands cannot now be realized.
The authorized Capital Stock of the Company is one hundred million dollars, of which five millions have already been paid in, and of which it is not supposed that more than twenty-five millions at most will be required.
The cost of the road is estimated by competent engineers to be about one hundred million dollars, exclusive of equipment.
Prospects for Business.
The railroad connection between Omaha and the East is now complete, and the earnings of the Union Pacific on the sections already finished, for the month of May, were $361,782. These sectional earnings, as the road progresses, will much more than pay the interest on the Company's bonds, and the through business over the only line of railroad between the Atlantic and Pacific must be immense.
Value and Security of the Bonds.
The Company respectfully submit that the above statement of facts fully demonstrates the security of their Bonds, and as additional proof they would suggest that the Bonds now offered are less than ten million dollars on 517 miles of road, on which over twenty million dollars have already been expended; on 330 miles of this road the cars are now running, and the remaining 187 miles are nearly completed.
At the present rate of premium on gold these bonds pay an annual interest on the present cost of Nine Per Cent.,
And it is believed that on the completion of the road, like the Government Bonds, they will go above par. The Company intend to sell but a limited amount at the present low rate, and retain the right to advance the price at their option.

J. C. TILTON'S
TRADE TOILET & WASHING MARK.
CARBON SOAP.

WARRANTED always uniform in quality, and made from the purest materials. If not satisfactory, the purchase money, in all cases, will cheerfully be refunded. Try it and be convinced.

The CARBON SOAP is made similar to that of most all other

Best Standard Soap,

But in addition there has been a new and valuable chemical compound added in the finish, by which all that hardness so peculiar to other soap is entirely removed. The coarsest as well as the finest fabric can be washed with it and remain soft and glossy as new. One pound is equal to three pounds of ordinary Soap. And here lies its chief excellence over all other soap; it is simple, requiring no extensive or complicated direction for using. For bathing purposes it is certainly a luxury, leaving the skin soft and healthy, and can be safely used in washing the tenderest infant. For all cleaning and cleansing purposes it is without a rival.

Believing it to be SUPERIOR, and that it will be duly appreciated by a discriminating public, I desire it to stand upon its merits alone.

It contains no PETROLEUM, or any foreign substance; nothing of the kind.

AUCTION SALES.

COUNTRY HOMES AT AUCTION.—The subscriber will offer at Public Sale, on the premises, in Robinson township, on THURSDAY, July 11th, 1867, commencing at 2 o'clock p. m., a splendid variety of BUILDING LOTS, desirable for country homes or for gardening purposes, the whole consisting of thirty acres, divided in to eighteen lots, ranging from one to three acres each. These lots are situated on Chartiers creek, two-and-one-half miles from the city, in a fertile and salubrious valley, and but a short distance from the romantic spot known as McKee's Rocks. They are accessible from the city by the Woods' Run Passenger Railway and Ferry to McKee's Rocks, and by the Pittsburgh & Steubenville Railroad, as well as by the Chartiers & Robinson Township Turnpike.

The position is one of the most healthful and beautiful in the country, and being but a short distance from the city, the opportunity thus offered for obtaining a country home or garden spot is a very rare one.

Any person wishing to see the property before the sale, can do so by calling on the subscriber, near the premises, in Chartiers township.

TERMS—One-third cash at time of sale; balance in one and two years, with interest from date of sale.

45 VALUABLE BUILDING LOTS AT VERNER STATION, near to and below Woods' Run, on Fort Wayne & Chicago Railway.—On MONDAY MORNING, June 24th, at 10½ o'clock, on the premises, will be sold the remaining forty-five lots in the above plan. They are 24 by 100 feet each, fronting on wide streets, and broad alleys in rear, with abundance of choice small fruits, and ornamental and fruit trees in high cultivation. The lots are pleasantly seated between the Ohio river and Fort Wayne Railway, immediately at Verner Station, and within twelve minutes ride of Allegheny Station. Their situation is all that could be desired, occupying between the Excelsior Iron Works of Lindsay, Owens & Semple, and the extensive works of the Pittsburgh Forge and Iron Company, with numerous surrounding improvements.

Not for years has there been so desirable an opportunity for investment as is now offered. Pleasant, healthy and convenient location, and terms easy. All desiring a home of their own should attend this sale.

A Free Excursion Train will leave the Allegheny Depot at 10 o'clock a. m., returning after the sale.

TERMS OF SALE—One-third cash, balance in three equal annual payments. $10 of the cash payment to be paid on each lot at time of sale.

HUGH McKELVY, P. M.

Meeting of Oil Men.

The Pittsburgh Petroleum Association held a special meeting in Room No. 4, Dalzell's Building, corner of Irwin street and Duquesne Way, at three o'clock P. M., yesterday, President N. W. Burke in the chair.

Minutes of previous meeting were read and adopted.

Mr. Kirk, chairman of the committee appointed at last meeting to go to Philadelphia, and effect arrangements with the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company for a reduction in freights on oil, submitted the following:

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM ASSOCIATION.—Gentlemen:—Your committee would respectfully report, that in accordance with their appointment, they proceeded to Philadelphia and had three different interviews with the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad. We were treated courteously and had a fair opportunity of presenting all the arguments in favor of further reduction; this was done by the members of the committee to the best of their ability; but failed to accomplish anything more than a reduction by way of the Allegheny Valley Railroad, and an extension of time at present rates to October 1st instead of September 1st, with fair notice to be given if any advance should take place at that time. The main point of our argument was the low rates charged by the Northern routes which enabled Cleveland to flow oil on the seaboard cheaper than Pittsburgh. The Pennsylvania Railroad officers corresponded with those Northern Routes, the result of which was the rate from Cleveland to New York was advanced from 45c to 60c; this, with the advance of 12cts per bbl. on crude from Oil City to Cleveland, the officers of the Pennsylvania Railroad claimed gave Pittsburgh the advantage over Cleveland on railroad carriage. We, however, insisted on the rate being placed so as to compete with Lake and Canal carriage. The reply to this was, that comparatively little was carried by this means, the total shipment for the season not being over 2,100 barrels. This we were not prepared to deny, except in a general way; we believe that the fact can be established that heavy shipments are being made by that route, and if the fact was fully proved it would have weight with the Pennsylvania Railroad.

We are unanimously of the opinion that the travel of Pittsburgh has suffered from want of combination, and a proper presentation of our rights to railroad companies, and for a remedy would recommend the adoption of the following:

Resolved, That a standing committee of five persons be appointed, whose duty it shall be to collect information, and present every fact bearing on the interest of Pittsburgh, in the different railroad companies, and that they have power to employ a person to attend to this matter, the expense to be defrayed by a tax levied by the committee on the different refineries and dealers, in proportion to their capacity and business done.

The report and resolution were adopted.

The following gentlemen were appointed a Committee on Transportation in accordance with the resolution contained in the foregoing report: Messrs. Kirk, Warring, Bates, Long and Summers.

The report of George H. Thurston, former Secretary of the Association, was received and referred to the Executive Committee.

On motion of Mr. Kirk, a committee of five brokers was appointed to wait on the refiners of this city, and induce them to join the Association, as follows: John Warden, James Wilkins, B. F. Leech, Wm. Edgerton, and Frank Lock.

On motion of Mr. Davis, the Secretary was authorized to have the constitution transcribed, and ready for the signatures of members at the next meeting.

Mr. Warden moved that a committee of five be appointed to establish a standard for barrels, regulating the length and thickness of staves, &c., which carried, and the following gentlemen appointed: Messrs. Warner, Lockhart, Davis, Warden and Forsyth.

On motion, the following gentlemen were appointed a committee of three to ascertain and report to the association the best method of gauging oil: Messrs. Lockhart, Forsyth and Davis.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

New Building on the Court-House Grounds—Action of the Grand Jury.

At the March term of the Quarter Sessions the Controller and County Commissioners submitted to the Grand Jury a proposal to erect a new county building, on the ground between the County Jail and Fifth street, owned by the county, to be divided into three contiguous rooms, for the use of the County Treasurer, County Commissioners and County Controller, said building to be of brick, one story high, about twenty-five feet in width, and about one hundred feet in length, and to be made fire proof, according to a plan and specifications submitted, at an estimated cost of ten thousand dollars. The Grand Jury being of opinion that the proposed building was necessary for the public convenience and for the accommodation of the county officers, and for the reception and safe-keeping of the records and papers belonging to said officers, approved the proposal and recommended the erection of the building according to the plan submitted.

The Grand Jury of the present (June) term having read the presentment and approval of the jury of March Sessions, and particularly examined into the action of the said jury, as embodied in their recommendation of March 14th, and being satisfied of the expediency of erecting the proposed new building,

"Resolved, That the Grand Jurors do concur in and adopt the action and recommendation of the Grand Jury of March term, and recommend the erection of the proposed new building according to the plan and specifications referred to in the order and recommendation of said Grand Jury made at the March term last past."

THE COURTS.

Court of Quarter Sessions.

This Court met Friday at ten o'clock. Hon Thomas Mellon on the bench, Col. L. B. Duff, District Attorney.

EAST BIRMINGHAM DISORDERLY CASE.

The case of the Commonwealth vs. Mary Ann Schmidt nee Pulling, indicted for keeping a common ill-governed disorderly house in East Birmingham, to the encouragement of idleness and bad conduct generally, resulted in a verdict of guilty, and the defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and to undergo four months imprisonment in the county jail.

CONVICTED AND SENTENCED.

John McCarthy, a young man, was convicted of the larceny of money from a butcher shop on Pennsylvania avenue, and sentenced to sixteen months imprisonment in the Western Penitentiary.

WOULD NOT CONTEND.

George B. Cochran put in the plea of nolle contendere to an indictment for an assault and battery on Joseph E. Robinson, whom he ejected from his office. Defendant was sentenced to pay a fine of five dollars and costs.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY.

John Danna, aged nineteen years, and Thomas Carroll, aged seventeen years, were convicted of an attempt to commit a burglary, having been surprised in endeavoring to break into the store of J. D. Thompson. Danna was sentenced to the Penitentiary for sixteen months, and Carroll to the House of Refuge.

DRUGGIST FINED.

Wm. A. Ahl, druggist, on Fulton street, Sixth ward, plead guilty to two indictments for selling liquor without license, and was sentenced, on each, to pay a fine of fifty dollars and the costs.

ANOTHER WHISKY CASE.

Patrick Kinney, of the First ward, plead guilty to an indictment for selling liquor on Sunday, and was sentenced to pay a fine of twenty dollars and to thirty days imprisonment in the county jail.

The same defendant plead guilty to selling liquor without license, for which he was sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and to twenty days imprisonment in the jail.

HUSBAND IN TROUBLE—OLD CASE REVIVED.

George M. Jacobs, of Duquesne borough, was brought from prison to answer the complaint of his wife for abuse at his hands, while in a state of intoxication. She desired that he be held in bonds to keep the peace, and seemed particularly desirous that he should be made pay the costs. The accused said all would be right if his wife would act properly—keep away from balls and stay at home with her children. Jacobs was required to pay the costs and to enter into his own recognizance to keep the peace. It appeared that he prosecuted J. F. Bauer, for bigamy, in 1865, and failed to appear, the grand jury accordingly ignoring the bills (there were two) and requiring that he should pay the costs. This unexpected circumstance, when revived against him, somewhat surprised Jacobs, and he was about to explain, but the Court said no explanation would relieve him from the costs, which he was directed to pay, or in default stand committed.

HORSE FALSE PRETENSE CASE.

George McCombs was placed on trial on an indictment charging him with obtaining from Daniel Hiltey a horse under false representations. The parties reside in the vicinity of East Liberty, and it was alleged, on the part of the prosecution, that the horse was obtained by defendant under the representation that he would pay the price agreed upon, one hundred and fifty dollars, in stone, which he said could be obtained from his quarry, the only one in the neighborhood of East Liberty. The agreement was made and defendant gave his note, payable in stone. It appeared, however, as alleged, that the stone quarry designated did not belong to the defendant, or that he had no claim upon the stone. For the defense it was claimed that the horse had been represented to be sound, and proving not to be, the defendant interfered to prevent the stone being taken, and that this was the real nature of the difficulty. The defendant is one of the oldest and most highly respected citizens of East Liberty, and possessed of considerable wealth. Verdict not guilty.

BILLS RETURNED YESTERDAY.

The Grand Jury at half past ten o'clock came into Court and returned bills as follows:

For selling unwholesome provisions, under Sec. 77, Penal Code; True bills: Henry Heins, Adam Hoffman, Charles Kathalder, John Hoffman, Henry Hershauser, alias "Dutch Henry," Thomas Henis, Jacob Haas, ——Sherman, Jacob Meisel, John Kathalder, ———Houser, Samuel McClowen, William Tomer, David Tomer, J. The Pittsburgh Gazette

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 21, 1867.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 137¾; Eighty-one bonds, 112½; Five Twenties, 1862, 110½; Five Twenties, 1864, 106¾; Five Twenties, 1865, 106⅞; 1865 Consols, 109¾; Seven Thirties, 106⅛; Ten Forties, 100; Michigan Southern Railroad, 69¾; Cleveland & Pittsburgh, 76¾; Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago, 97¾; Erie, 59; Chicago and Northwestern, 34¾; Chicago and Northwestern preferred 58¾; New York Central, 101¾; Reading, 107¾; Chicago and Rock Island, 89¾; Western Union Telegraph, 42¾; Gregory, 5,55; Corydon, 1,50; Quartz Hill, 1,40; Smith & Parmalee, 4,10.

Gold opened steady at 137¾, declined to 137¼, but gradually rose to 139¼, closing price. The advance is due to a weakness of securities abroad, but principally to the operations of cliques. Government securities were all lower this morning, but closed strong at an advance of ⅛@¼ per cent on gold bonds. The stock market was very dull this morning, but gained strength towards the close, with an advance of 1 per cent. through the entire list.

Mining stocks are steady; business light. It is rather surprising to see stocks and bonds rise at the moment when money is scarcer and commands even 7 per cent. on call loans, but we predicted a rise at the close of last week, not because we pretend to be able to see far ahead, but because it was a conviction forced upon us by a careful observance of the daily markets and its effect upon the community. It was the intention of a bear clique to break the market if possible, in order to have stocks steady again before July 1, preparatory to a general upward movement, which is at present engineered immediately after the first of July.

—The New York Times says:

"A correspondent inquired to-day if we have heard anything of the purpose of some of the city National Banks to return to the old New York State Bank system, foregoing, of course, their privilege of circulation. We suppose that the very strict and searching questions propounded to the National Banks, preliminary to the quarterly reports required to be rendered to the Bureau at Washington, may have caused annoyance to certain banks in this city that came reluctantly under the National system two years ago; and as an act of the Legislature of New York permits them to change back again, it is possible that some of them may entertain the idea of availing this privilege, if only to be rid of the somewhat inconvenient necessity of answering, categorically, to the manner and entire security of their administration at Washington. But the probability is they will deliberate some time, on the effect upon their own credit, of leaving the National system, because it is so thorough in its rules and demands for public information on the condition and conduct of their respective banks. We doubt that any such purpose is in serious contemplation, the more because rumor connects with it the names of one or two banks that cannot afford to take the lead in such direction, and at least one other whose managers would not, if they could."

—The money market continues to work pretty close for the class of business offering. Bankers do not care to increase their discount lines materially at present, and they could not materially expand them even if so disposed. Deposits are low, owing to the dullness of trade, and there is no prospect of any material increase until business revives, as merchants, instead of keeping their surplus means in bank, have invested them chiefly in Government securities. Rates of interest range from 8@12 per cent—8@10c being the range between bankers and depositors.—Cin. Gazette.

—Most of the discount houses reported a more active demand for money to-day, though there was no material increase in the volume of business, which rules very quiet. In some quarters the market was reported close, though elsewhere it was quoted comfortable. The first named condition is applicable to most of the Nationals, which are disposed to hoard currency and contract their discount line pending the approach of quarterly day.—Chicago Tribune.

—The New York Herald is, for some reason, a deadly enemy of the national banking system; and its opposition, whether it be from malice or well grounded reason, is reduced to a regular system, and administered with such skill and perseverance that it must produce some influence on the public mind, notwithstanding the notorious character of the proprietor of that paper for levying black mail. The editorial maledictions, which emanate periodically from that sheet, are invariably built upon the same frame-work or skeleton. This skeleton consists of two propositions, namely: That twenty millions annually might be saved to the government by issuing $300,000,000 of greenbacks in place of the bank notes, and purchasing and destroying a corresponding amount of bonds now held as security for the present circulation, and on which the government is now paying about $20,000,000 per annum; and that the system is a tremendous and dangerous element of power in our national politics, which might be wielded to the detriment of the country. No one seems inclined to attempt to disprove the validity of either of these propositions, and it is certainly amusing to witness the ingenuity of the Herald in devising ways and means by which they are made to do duty every three or four weeks, in an imposing and high sounding leader for the great organ of thought and enterprise.

It would be a very interesting matter to know whether their articles produce the effect which is evidently intended, or whether the banks utterly ignore the existence of such an institution as the Herald.—Erie Dispatch.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 21, 1867.

CRUDE—The market was quiet and a little dull to-day, though prices are nominally unchanged. Sale of 60 bbls, on the spot, at 6; and 6000 bbls for all 1867, buyer's option at 12¼. For the last six months of 1867, buyers could probably be found at 7½ to 8c, but, apparently, sellers are better satisfied with 12½ for all 1868—the party who sold the 6000 bbls above noted to-day, has it in tank, and therefore, is sure of a margin, and can deliver whenever called upon. To sell short, for such a delivery, 18 months ahead, is hazardous, however, as there might be a great revolution in the trade before the 31st of December, 1868, and who can tell but what oil in the meantime might be worth 25 or even 30c, which would be decidedly rough on a "short" seller.

REFINED—There was not a single operation in bonded oil to-day, at least we did not have a single sale reported, and while the market is dull and neglected, prices are nominally unchanged. We continue to quote standard white at 21½ for June delivery in Philadelphia, 22 for July; 23 for August, and 23½ for September. The fact that there have been some bad failures east within the past ten days, and others expected, has a tendency more than anything else to depress the market, and put down prices. Sale of 50 bbls prime white, free oil, at 40.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 21, 1866.

There are no new characteristics in the produce markets worthy of special notice. The demand for most, if not all, of the leading commodities is restricted mainly to filling the legitimate wants of dealers and consumers, and as there is an absence of anything like a speculative feeling, we have but very few round lot operations to record. Prices are very unsettled and tending downward.

GRAIN—Oats a shade firmer but unchanged; sale of 175 sks at 63c, and small sales at the usual advance. No Wheat in this market. Corn is dull but unchanged; mixed may be quoted at 80@82c, and prime Yellow at 85@88c. Sale of 136 sks Spring Barley at $1,05, and small sales of Rye at $1,20@1,25—24 sacks sold at $1,30, but this is considered above the market.

FLOUR—There is no improvement to note in the demand, and the market continues dull, and prices unsettled and drooping. We now quote at $11@11,50 for Spring Wheat; $12 for choice do; $12,50@12 for Winter Wheat, and $17@17,50 for fancy brands, in a retail way. Rye Flour dull; may be quoted at $8,75@9.

PROVISIONS—Bacon is quiet and unchanged. We quote Shoulders at 9¼@9½c; Ribbed Sides at 11¼@11½; Clear do, 12¼, and Canvassed Sugar Cured Hams at 16@16½c. Lard dull at 11½@13c. Mess Pork dull. Sale of 2000 lbs country Clear Sides at 10c.

OIL—F. Sellers & Co. report Lard Oil at 80c for No. 2, and $1,04 for No. 1. Demand fair.

POTATOES—Dull and weak, under the influence of increased arrivals. Sale of 1 car Peach Blows, on track, at $1,10—small sales in store, at $1,20@1,25. New Potatoes are selling at $8,50 per bbl.

EGGS—Dull, the supply being somewhat in excess of the demand, but fresh packed are still held at 20.

BUTTER—Prime fresh Butter is in fair demand and in limited supply; small sales at 17@18c. Common packed is very dull and hard to sell at any price.

CHEESE—Is dull and unchanged; small sales at 14@16c, according to quality.

MILL FEED—Supply almost exhausted. Sale of 3 tons Chopped Feed at $1,50 per cwt.

GREEN APPLES—Sales of eastern (new crop) at $8 per bbl.

ORANGES—Sales at $8,50 per box.

LEMONS—Firm, at $9 per box.

BEANS—Sales at $3,25@3,50 per bush.

PITTSBURGH METAL AND BLOOM MARKET—WEEKLY REVIEW.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY June 21, 1867.

There are no new characteristics in the Metal market worthy of special notice. The demand continues light, buyers generally, taking hold sparingly, the policy of both mill and foundry men being to buy only just what will keep them going, and no more. Stocks, although not unusually large for the season, are, nevertheless, fully up to the demand, and, while the market is dull and weak, prices, compared with last week, are without material change, though the tendency is downward, and we have no doubt concessions would have to be made to effect a good round lot sale. There has been quite a movement in Blooms this week, the sales, in the aggregate, being much larger than for some time past. The following sales are reported:

MAHONING VALLEY.
27 tons Grey Forge	$40 00—6 mos
65 do do do	39 00—cash
20 do do Foundry	41 00—4 mos
23 do do do	41 00—do
260 do Mahoning—at furnace	p. t.
80 do Grey Forge—fav. brand	42 00—cash
150 do do	40 00—4 mos

PITTSBURGH WOOL MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, June 21, 1867.

As the new clip of Wool is very generally sheared, wool-growers are now ready to sell and anxious to obtain all they can for it. Wool, like nearly all other articles of trade, suffers from the extreme depression in business matters now existing throughout the country. At this season of the year it is usual to see and hear of a great number of Eastern agents, dealers and manufacturers through the country preparing to buy the new clip, but, so far as we know, the number of such agents this season is quite small; various reasons are given, such as the large accumulation of goods in the hands of manufacturers and commission houses, with but little demand from the West or South. This, with the scarcity of money and high price of labor, has a tendency to keep manufacturers in check in the production of goods. Wool-growers, generally, expect to realize some benefit from the late tariff; but with the shrinkage in values and depreciation, now going on in all kinds of merchandise, we do not see how Wool is going to be an exception, unless the woolen goods market becomes more active and cleared of the large over production and accumulation of goods. We do not hear of any parties buying on orders in the country, as the difference between buyers and sellers is too great to admit of anything being done yet for some time. Our dealers are buying a fair amount of Wool—mostly small lots—of the low and medium qualities, at from 40c to 45c, and for fair Wools, 45c to 50c. The market is quiet with a considerable amount selling at the following quotations:

RIVER NEWS.

The river is receding slowly but steadily with thirty-five inches reported on Glass House last evening. The weather yesterday was cloudy and unsettled with indications at times of rain.

The Robt. Moore, from Parkersburg, and the Leni Leoti, from Cincinnati, are the only arrivals. The Glasgow, from St. Louis, and the Belle from Cincinnati, are due here to-day. The former boat, we believe, is loaded mainly with iron ore.

The Armadillo and the towboat Wild Duck, with her model barges, cleared for St. Louis in the afternoon, with all the freight they could take on the water. The Moore and Leni Leoti also departed.

There was a rumor current on the street on Thursday, that the Great Republic had blown up near Cairo. Of course, there is no truth in the rumor, and we are a loss to imagine how it originated. She was not advertised to leave St. Louis until Thursday.

The Cincinnati Commercial, of Thursday, has the following:

The Silver Cloud No. 2, from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, passed down yesterday with 500 tons for St. Louis, one item being 160 tons railroad iron. She discharged considerable glassware here. Captain Conway reports that when the boat passed Ripley, Ohio, at one o'clock Tuesday night, a saw-mill, supposed to be Bosticks, was on fire. Capt. Dan. W. Maratta, of the John H. Groesbeck, left for his home in Rochester, Pa., yesterday. Captain Geo. W. Reed and clerk Russell, of the Columbia, left for Pittsburgh last evening. The Leonora No. 2, from Nashville, brought a moderate trip. Capt. Davis contemplates loading here for Evansville, and then return here with a load of tobacco. The Camelia will not return to the Tennessee river for the present, but will lay up and receive a new coat of paint. She will continue her trips to the Tennessee about the first of the month. We understand that the Columbia has been chartered to take the place of the Magnolia in the Maysville trade during low water. The J. G. Blackford will be sold by the United States Marshall at Louisville, to-morrow.

We extract the following from the Gazette and Enquirer of same date:

There is a lively time between the agents and masters of the Ezra Porter and Silver Spray, as to which boat shall leave the wharf first for New Orleans. The Maggie Hays and Mary Ament had a pretty even race up yesterday, so long as they could be seen. Captain Hartupee, patentee of the machinery of the Great Republic, has gone to St. Louis to join that boat. Captain Robert Hamilton has also gone to St. Louis. Capt. Dan. Maratta and family will spend the summer in the interior of Pennsylvania. Capt. Lou. Becker has accepted the position of clerk on the St. Charles. The Pittsburgh packet Belle cleared for that port last evening, with all the freight she could find. She will prove an excellent low water craft. Capt. Laughrey commands, and Capt. Chambers is in the office. The Big Sandy Packet Company yesterday effected the arrangements for the charter of the Columbia, with Captain W. Dean, of Pittsburgh. She is destined for the low water season, and will run in connection with other boats, in place of the side-wheel boats belonging to the above company.

A boat, a stern-wheeler, named the Fire King, lying at the Fulton wharf, is having machinery constructed by which she is to be propelled by steam produced from crude petroleum as fuel. She is furnished with three large size barrels, into which the petroleum is first placed. These vessels are set up on end, and to which is attached a pipe, running into the fireplace or furnace, perforated with small holes. A small pipe leads from the dome or crown of the boiler into the supplying pipe, conveying dry steam into it. The oil is then turned on by means of a throttle valve, as is also the supply of steam, and a very small quantity allowed to run. A light is then applied, and the gas from the oil instantly takes fire. As the worm in the fireplace becomes heated, the supply of oil is increased to an extent just sufficient to allow of its instant combustion. The boilers, two in number, do not stand on the deck, but rest three feet above the bottom of the hold. As yet she has not been demonstrated a success, but her owners are confident that desideratum will ultimately be obtained.

The following quaint record of the trip of the James Battle from New Orleans to New Albany, signed by W. H. Dacie, and David Smith, pilots, we find in the New Albany Ledger of Tuesday. It is decidedly racy, and is headed "Most Time on Record":

Left New Orleans June 2d, loaded to the guards, and fuel plenty for ten days on board. Nothing of importance occurred until we approached Ellis Cliffs, when we made an attempt to pass the Cliffs, and dropped back, got steam, blew the whistle to pass to larboard, and with considerable hard shoving succeeded all right. Met numerous boats, but did not pass any. Run one-half day by side of Chalk Banks, and finally passed them. Lost no time. Several of the crew had the scurvy, owing to our long voyage, and we finally reached New Albany in short space of sixteen days five minutes. The health of all the crew improving. Found nine and a half feet in the principal bars in the Ohio.

The St. Louis Democrat says the Northern Packet Line, plying between that city and St. Paul, is the only daily line running 800 miles.

We hear that definite instructions have been received from the Department at Washington reviving the assessment of the 2½ per cent. tax on the gross receipts of steamers for passengers. This is to take immediate effect, and all the steamboatmen and owners have been notified to make out their lists since August, 1866, and pay the accruing taxes. This will, we know, be a very heavy tax upon some of our Western boatmen, who have not realized more than 2½ per cent. profit on their entire season's business.

A method of propelling boats, now in use in France, has been introduced upon the Erie canal, at Buffalo, New York. By this system a steel wire, five-eighths of an inch in diameter, is laid along the centre of the entire length of canal. This wire cable runs over a drum on the deck of the boat, and a small engine of four horse power turns the drum, and the boat is thus drawn along. It is claimed that a boat of two hundred and fifty tons may be pulled along in this way at the rate of two miles per hour, with a consumption of only twelve hundred pounds of coal in twenty-four hours.
